ROAD GRADING CREW AT WORK IN DISTRICT AROUND BEISEKER

BEISEKER. — The municipality road grading crew has moved into Division No. 3 last week, and will be grading four miles of road west of Acme past Joe Miller's and Mrs. K. Schleppe, and then south to John Zacher's. Later they will move close to Beiseker for some road work.

Reports are that quite a bit of rye and barley have been threshed as well as some wheat. There has been a lot of damage to the late grain by the severe frost we had in the middle of August, although south of Beiseker did not seem to have had as much frost.

The crab apple crop around Beiseker is excellent this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lohrke and Anne, and Mr. and Mrs. Oxford of Calgary spent the weekend in Banff.

Mrs. Fulton and Enid visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Weisgerber during the past week.

Dr. and Mrs. Steve Schmaltz and family made a hurried visit to Beiseker during the week.

Miss Lima Schmaltz is at home on a three weeks holiday from High River.

We are sorry to hear of Miss Irene Schmaltz being very ill with ptomaine poisoning, but are glad to know that she is well on the road to recovery now.

Misses Viola Meidinger and Clarette Wright have been given a $300 teacher training bursary from the Wheatland school division.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lavoie and family spent last weekend in Banff.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Gibson have Miss Ethel Story of Enid, Oklahoma visiting with them.

An air mail letter from Felix P. Schmaltz, Windsor, Ont., states that he had a wonderful trip by plane. Had a stop-over at Toronto, but could not get a room until the second night, and then along with a member of parliament. He says that it cost $8.00 each, but was not worth any more than a 25c room.

Felix will have to wait another week before he can get the 36-passenger school bus, so he has lots of time to visit around Windsor. At Toronto he had a good time given him by the General Electric co. by seeing through their factory.

Mr. Francis Lemay has left the services of Beiseker Motors Ltd., and has secured employment in the city.

Mrs. Mary Macdonnel and son Leo visited at the homes of Mrs. M. A. Bettin and Mrs. Andrew Schmaltz on the weekend. Leo was on his way back to International Falls where he is employed and his mother was returning with him for a couple of weeks.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hagel Jr. on their baby boy, born August 30.

We are glad to see Mr. and Mrs. Tom Murray and family back after the holidays. We also welcome a former Beiseker teacher to our teaching staff this term, Mrs. Bessie Harris.

Best wishes to all the Beiseker teachers for a very successful and enjoyable year as well.

Fred Campbell was a busy man last Sunday showing some former Beiseker residents all the improvements to our town in the way of building, etc., in the past eight years. They were Mr. and Mrs. A. A. MacDonald (Mac a former principal), Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Kirkpatrick, (Reta a former grades VII, VIII and IX teacher), and Miss Aileen MacKay (a former primary teacher. Miss MacKay has just returned from a trip to Rome, and says that she still feels like travelling.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Schmaltz and son Peter were visiting with Pius at Haynes, and Ronnie Selzer's at Stettler during the week. Anita is in the Stettler hospital, but is doing very well, especially since she has Mrs. A. MacKinnon (Maxine) for her nurse, whom we all know to be very efficient.

Mr. and Mrs. Ki Killen have Mrs. Killen's mother, Mrs. Green visiting with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Schmaltz and family, Mr. and Mrs. A. Wald and Peter Schmaltz Jr. left last Sunday for a fishing trip to Pine Lake. We hear that Leo took the regulation ruler along so that he will only bring home the big ones.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Rempell and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Weisgerber, Margaret and Pearl spent last weekend in Banff.

Mr. and Mrs. Nicky Schmaltz had Mrs. Schmaltz's mother, sisters, Peggy and Beatrice and the newly-weds, Mr. and Mrs. De Fraine to visit at their home last Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. DeFraine will be making their home in Edmonton.

Mr. Ken Wright journeyed to Sylvan last weekend and returned Monday evening with Mrs. Wright, Joey and Margaret.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Zacher were Sunday visitors at Beiseker.

Miss Christena Velker is spending a few days in Calgary. During this time she was a guest at the wedding of Mr. Bill Summers, whom quite a number of Beiseker people know.

The CWL held their regular meeting last Thursday and had a splendid turn-out in spite of the busy season.

Mrs. Wald gave a splendid report on the work she had accomplished in the Tombola, and there were some grand prizes this year. The books will be ready for distribution shortly. Don't forget the date of the annual fowl supper when these prizes will be raffled on Wednesday, Oct. 18.

District Residents Wed In States

BEISEKER. — A beautiful terrace, high above Los Angeles, in Bel-Air California at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Haymond, was the setting for the six o'clock wedding of Miss Barbara Haymond and Mr. Vaughn Gramms on August 7.

The bridal party entered the garden through high standards entwined with ropes of ivy and white flowers leading to the white pillows where they knelt for the double-ring service.

The bride, who wore the traditional white wedding gown, was given in marriage by her father. Her floor-length taffeta gown was fashioned with a fitted bodice, lily-point sleeves and a drop neckline. She wore her grandmother's amethyst necklace and a veil of real lace, which had been worn by the groom's mother at her own wedding. The bridal bouquet was a shower of bouvardia and white roses.

The bride's only attendant was Mrs. Dexter Haymond, who wore a gown of pale pink and carried and arm bouquet of roses. The groom's best-man was Mr. Dexter Haymond, the bride's cousin.

For the wedding the bride's mother chose a dress of navy frosted organdie; the groom's mother wore a gold gabardine suit. Both wore a corsage of white carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony a toast was proposed to the bride by her uncle, Mr. Carl E. Haymond. A buffet supper was served on the terrace.

The groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Gramms flew down from Calgary, Alberta, for the wedding and spent a short time with the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Haymond of Long Beach, California.

For travelling the bride wore a red suit with matching coat and white accessories. Her corsage was white roses. After a short honeymoon in Mexico the couple motored to Beiseker, Alberta.

The bride and groom both attended Mount Royal College in Calgary, and the University of British Columbia in Vancouver, B.C., where Mr. Gramms was affiliated with Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity.

Ladies' Auxiliary Holds Party Recently

ROCKYFORD. — The Rockyford branch of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Canadian Legion, B.E.S.L. held their first birthday dinner on Thursday, August 17, 1950, in St. Rita's auditorium. The dinner table was centered with a birthday cake, holding a large candle in honor of their first year. Place cards held a miniature union jack and other table decorations were bouquets of garden flowers, flags and streamers of red, white and blue.

Mrs. F. Houghton, local president acted as official hostess, welcoming the guests. Mrs. Towers, Provincial President and Mrs. Dexter, provincial Secretary. Mrs. Heimbecker presented the guests with corsages of roses, ribboned with red, white and blue. Officers of the local branch also received corsages. Mrs. Heimbecker proposed the toast to the king.

After dinner, Mrs. Towers gave an interesting talk about the history of the auxiliary and the work that it has done, and is now doing. Mrs. Dexter then spoke about canteen work in Calgary during the war, showing how a group can work hard at a project and yet have a lot of fun in the enterprise.

Mrs. A. J. Geeraert, secretary of the local branch gave a report of the organization activities for their first year, comparing the growth of the auxiliary with that of a baby's first year.

Local business firms sent messages of congratulations. A sing-song followed with Mrs. E. Johnson, local treasurer at the piano.

Mr. H. Katterhagen showed slides of Yellowstone Park, Banff and the Calgary stampede. On behalf of the Auxiliary Mrs. Heimbecker thanked Mr. Katterhagen for his time.

The evening closed with God Save the King and a very successful birthday party will long be remembered by the members.

Lou Golka was an Edmonton business visitor last week.

Prices Need Scarcity for Support

While housewives are complaining about the high price of vegetables, farmers in Ontario are suffering from falling prices in the worst market in the farming community's history. These cabbages were sold, wholesale for 4½ cents. At prices like that, farmers say they cannot continue. Overabundance of garden crops elsewhere, they say, has ruined their usual market outlets.

Thru The Camera's Eye

New Gold Mine for Tobacco Growers

The discovery in 1919 that tobacco would grow in Ontario's Norfolk county, transformed a dying mixed-farming district into a thriving "gold mine." That "gold mine" is still producing and is more prosperous than ever. Growing 55 per cent of the total Canadian crop of flue-cured tobacco (the type you smoke in your favorite Canadian cigarette), Norfolk farmers earn over $25,000,000 each year from their 60,000,000 pounds of "golden weed."

To Attend International Women's Conference

Seen here is the delegation of Canadians bound for the September 9 to 19 conference of the Associated Countrywomen of the World being held in Copenhagen, Denmark. In all, some 29 countries will be represented at the conference with ladies from 90 organizations. The association now has a membership of five and a half millions.

Goose Bay Has New Commander

The RCAF station Goose Bay, isolated air base on the Labrador coast was the scene of an impressive full-dress ceremony as Group Captain L. J. Birchall, O.B.E., D.F.C., of St. Catharines, famous wartime "Saviour of Ceylon" took over as commanding officer from Group Capt. J. A. Verner of Vancouver, who moves to Air Force Headquarters as a staff officer in the technical services branch. Here Group Capt. Verner signs the document that officially hands the station over to Group Capt. Birchall (left) while the station adjutant, Flt. Lieut. J. E. Goldsmith, D.F.C., A.F.C., of Ottawa and Halifax, looks on.

Takes Part in Tuna Match

To deep-sea anglers, a square mile of ocean at Wedgeport, N.S., is the best fishing hole in the world and on Sept. 13-16 they will gather from many countries to prove that statement in the form of a fishing contest. Maj. Cyril Frisby, V.C., above, is captain of the British team competing in the International Tuna Cup matches at Wedgeport.

Now Just a Memory

It was a happy summer for thousands of Alberta circus and carnival fans, as a record number of performances were played here to record crowds. But with fall coming on, such things are now just a memory. Seen here is the elephant Judy, one of the most highly trained in the world, with a pretty circus girl. Performance was snapped during a July presentation in Edmonton.

Frog Man Takes a Leap

This fellow is no man from Mars, but a Frog Man with the British Navy, equipped for under-sea operations. They derive their name from the frog-like feet which enables them to swim with ease under water. Frog Men perform difficult diving operations, and in time of war, have been known to plant explosives on enemy naval vessels.

BANNERS tell union story of the 9-day national railway strike, which came to an end Wednesday night, Aug. 30. It was the only general rail strike in history, and 124,000 non-operating railmen were involved in it. The government pushed through a bill forcing the railmen back to work, and if the unions and railways do not come to terms in 30 days, compulsory arbitration will prevail.

A News Section About Alberta People,
Week Ending Sept. 9, 1950Controversy Rising Over
Alberta Development Plans

By RAYMOND ARGYLE

With Alberta in the midst of unparalleled development, through expanding oil fields, renewed industrial activity, and a booming construction business, a controversy is arising over plans for future development of the province's cities and metropolitan areas.

With L. E. Detwiler in the centre of a contentious debate over a proposed $25,000,000 'Miracle Mile' for downtown Edmonton, another figure is stirring speculation and discussion with an $8,000,000 'Super Suburb' scheme that would give Jasper Place, a sprawling community on Edmonton's western outskirts, 1,250 new homes.

He's Edward Litchfield, an ebullient, self-sure former Edmontonian who's spent the last decade at the coast in the construction business there.

Detwiler, and the Edmonton civic officials who stand behind him, including some of the commissioners and the town planner, and Litchfield, stand at opposite ends of the globe as far as planned development for Alberta is concerned.

"The trend all over North America is for decentralization," Litchfield told this reporter, and he went on to add that the Detwiler scheme was not in accord with present town planning schemes.

Litchfield would have Canada's Central Housing and Mortgage Corporation undertake financing of his 'Super Suburb' scheme for Jasper Place, with his construction firm doing the job of erecting the thousand-odd units that would go to make up the development.

Speaking of the proposed utility scheme for the same community, which would have the Dominion government finance water and sewers in Jasper Place as a civil defence emergency scheme, Litchfield said that the legislative set-up in Canada does not allow the federal government to step in over the head of the provincial government in such matters.

About 160 acres would be required for his Jasper Place program, and he is asking council there to select three possible sites on which provincial heads could consider locations for the development.

"Next year there may be a $20,000,000 fund in Alberta for such development," said Litchfield. "It should be used wisely," he added.

"It's the heritage of every North American to own his own home, and his own land, to do with as he wishes, providing he doesn't interfere with the rights of his neighbors," said Litchfield. "That's why millions of people left Europe," he continued, "and they came here willing to fight for that right."

He contends that his proposed scheme for Jasper Place would give that heritage to more than a thousand residents there, and that it could be duplicated all over the country.

In Vancouver Litchfield has undertaken two large-scale housing programs, one along the coast city's Grandview highway, and one along Marine Drive, which will be a $35,000,000 development by the time it is completed five years hence.

ALBERTA JOB
PICTURE BEST

More people were working in Alberta per capita last month than anywhere else in Canada.

That's what the Dominion Bureau of Statistics in Ottawa reported this week.

Per capita weekly wages in Canada hit an all-time high last month and industrial employment climbed to record peak for July 1.

The advance index number of employment, on the basis 1926 equals 100, touched 201.8 compared with 196.4 at June 1, and 199.5 on July 1, 1949.

Salaries Up

Per capita weekly salaries and wages moved up to $45.20 from $44.59 at June 1, and $42.96 at July 1, 1949.

The employment index by provinces, with the comparative figures for June in brackets: Prince Edward Island 179.5 (167.3); Nova Scotia, 184.6 (180.1); New Brunswick, 182.2 (168.1); Quebec, 197.3 (193.0); Ontario, 212.2 (207.1); Manitoba, 169.5 (160.9); Saskatchewan, 168.2 (164.6); Alberta, 223.0 (214.3); British Columbia, 207.7 (203.7).

Score Oil Success
On Edge Of City

Indications of oil success have been obtained at a wildcat well scarcely beyond the Edmonton city limits.

Officials of the Edmonton North Oil Co., an independent firm headed by William Moore, 1950 University of Alberta graduate, said light brown crude had been obtained in a drillstem test at their Edmonton North No. 1 wildcat.

The well is the closest ever drilled to the city.

"New Schools for Old"
Subject of CBC Broadcasts

By ETHEL TRUPP

Attention of radio listeners is drawn to the CBC series entitled "New Schools for Old."

Dr. S. R. Laycock, past president of the Canadian Federation of Home and School and now chairman of the School Education Committee of the Canadian Home and School and Parent-Teacher Federation will give a series of six lectures which commenced Aug. 29. This series will be on the air at 8 p.m., MST. The series will deal with the following topics on the nights indicated:

Sept. 5—"School Children are People"—A discussion of how discipline in the modern school is different from the old way. This will include a discussion of the modern idea of thinking of behaviour as caused and the need for diagnosing problems in an intelligent fashion.

Sept. 12—"Better Ways of Teaching"—This will bring out the modern trend of teaching as Group Leadership rather than the teacher merely telling, explaining and lecturing.

Sept. 19—"Teachers Ancient and Modern"—The public still thinks of teachers as filling-station hands rather than as social engineers. The modern teacher must be intelligent, well-adjusted and resourceful.

Sept. 26—"The Slow Child in School"—He will deal here with the effects of failure and discouragement in the traditional school and the newer ways of helping such a child.

Oct. 3—"The Bright Child in School"—This will include discussion of what the bright child contributes to society, what he is like and how he should be handled in school.

Parents are requested to write their opinions of the broadcasts to G. F. Bruce c-o CBC.

The first recorded typewriter was patented in England in 1714.

Drunkenness No Excuse

"I didn't know what I was doing. I didn't really intend to hurt him" . . . "to crash into the car" . . . "to commit murder" . . . "to leave my child" . . . "to hit that policeman" . . . "You see, Your Honor, I was a little high!"

"I was intoxicated."
"I was under the influence of liquor . . ."
"I didn't mean to" . . . "The act was not premeditated . . ."

Intoxication as an excuse, twisted and turned this way and that, but still an excuse. Something to lean on when common sense has gone.

An appeal to the court on the ground that all men have this common failing, and you, Your Honor, know that a man is not quite all there when he is drunk and shouldn't, therefore, be held responsible for what he does.

When is all this nonsense in our courts going to stop?

Drunkenness is no excuse and never can or should be held as such.

Drunkenness is a cause.

A man or woman who, when intoxicated, damages, injures, or kills, is and should be just as liable as the man or woman who, when sober, damages, injures, or kills.

To the dead child it makes no difference whether its killer was sober or intoxicated.

If anything, a sober killer is more likely to have taken precaution to avoid the death. The drunk killer is a killer whether in a car or with a gun or knife in hand.

Attention Governments

This editorial is directed to provincial and federal members of parliament and to senior civil servants.

But even if the idea it suggests is essentially sound, it will need the support of electors all over Canada to put it into effect.

Here is the idea. Would it not be more sensible for our federal and provincial governments, in decentralizing further their offices, to locate in cities and towns not already favored by expanding industrial growth?

In other words, why should not governments locate more branch offices in municipalities in which office space is less expensive, housing is easier to get, and in which the added employment potential would ease to some extent the jobless problem?

Certainly convenience in communication services is a factor in certain places but we wonder if this consideration is not more than offset by other gains.

Note and Comment

An investment in soil conservation, in reforestation, in wild life preservation, is a re-affirmation of our belief in leaving to our children a heritage of which they may be increasingly proud.

James Syme Hastings, who worked on the Cincinnati Enquirer in the early 1900's, contributed many famous sayings which are still used by current wits. Among them are the lines: "Every baby resembles the relative who has the most money." "Do right and fear no man; don't write and fear no woman" was another. Again, "Most husbands develop into pretty decent animals, considering the material their wives have to work with."

Municipal district councillors hereabouts who had an expensive time with winter-worn roads this spring might profit from this story by Earl Wilson.

A visitor asked a local councillor: "How are the local roads?"

"Fine," he replied. "We've abolished bad roads."

"Big job, wasn't it?" said the visitor.

"Not at all," the councillor said. "Wherever the going is particularly hard, we don't call it a road. We call it a detour."

"It Ain't Necessarily So"

By T. W. PUE

There is an old saying that figures don't lie—but liars can figure.

In the unemployment insurance game this does not hold true. In other ways, perhaps, but the very existence of Unemployment Insurance benefits gives us much greater unemployment figures than the true facts would bear out.

When a lady works and pays unemployment insurance, then gets married and quits her job to spend her time at housework instead of pushing the keys of a typewriter, is she unemployed? Of course not. But because of U.I.C. she registers as unemployed, and draws the benefits.

T. W. Pue

Take another example. A small acreage farmer gets a job with a construction crew during the summer. He and his family work hard on their little farm to provide a livelihood, in addition to his construction job.

Freeze-up comes, building slackens and he's out of work. Now if there was no unemployment insurance he'd go back home and do the daily chores without bothering to call himself unemployed. But because of out-of-work benefits he lists himself in the winter season army of idle workmen.

Carpenters are always considered a little higher paid because their work is seasonal. But there are always six weeks of bitterly cold weather when they'd rather get $18.00 a week from the government and be home by a warm fireside than $60.00 on the job. More unemployed, who wouldn't consider themselves as such if it weren't for the U.I.C.

"Unemployment Insurance is making bums out of some young men. They would rather take $18.00 a week in insurance than go where work is available."

This statement was not voiced by any reactionary, conservative industrialist.

It is the considered opinion, recently expressed of a man intimately acquainted with the operation of our Unemployment Insurance Commission, and one who is entirely sympathetic to the plight of those who are jobless through no fault of their own.

He must remain anonymous because he is a senior civil servant. But his views are worthy of study.

Far too many Canadians look upon jobless insurance funds as money which they, themselves, have saved and, therefore, money which they have a right to dispose of as they see fit.

That, of course, is far from the case.

Jobless insurance funds are not the sum total of the savings of all Canadian workers. If each contributor decided to quit and draw all the unemployment insurance to which he or she is "entitled", the fund would be speedily broke.

While there are 585 million dollars in the federal unemployment insurance treasury, it is worth noting that in 1949, a year in which Canadian employment was at a high, the fund staged a very "close race" between costs and income.

Unemployment insurance is insurance and nothing more. It is intended to cover short term emergencies. It is paid out of funds contributed only one-third by the employee, and the balance by the employer and general tax-paying public.

Insurance is only good if it is paid out under sound, business principles.

It is not designed, and never was, to bonus idleness.

Scriptural Meditations

"When we come to ask mercy and blessing from God we should have a spirit of love and forgiveness in our own hearts. How can we pray, 'forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors,' (Matt. 6:12) and yet indulge an unforgiving spirit? If we expect our own prayers to be heard we must forgive others in the same manner, and to the same extent, as we hope to be forgiven."

"Perseverance in prayer has been made a condition of receiving. We must pray always, if we would grow in faith and experience. We are to be 'instant in prayer,' to 'continue in prayer, and watch in the same with thanksgiving.' (Rom. 12:12; Col. 4:2) Peter exhorts believers to be 'sober and watch unto prayer.' (I Peter 4:7) Paul directs, 'In everything by prayer and supplication with thanks giving let your requests be made known unto God.' (Phil. 4:6) 'But ye, beloved,' says Jude, 'praying in the Holy Ghost, keep yourselves in the love of God.' (Jude 20:21)

"Unceasing prayer is the unbroken union of the soul with God, so that life from God flows into our life; and from our life, purity and holiness flow back to God."

Keep Trucks Free

Dear Editor—If there was need of proof that truck transportation is an indispensable part of our economic life, the recent rail strike should resolve it once and for all . . . and it should demonstrate the threatening implications of federal control of highway transportation. This national transportation emergency would have been a national disaster if the trucking industry had not been free to play its full part in the nation's business.

It would be folly to jeopardize Canada's economic life in these critical years by denying the motor transport industry its natural growth. The recommendations of the railways in respect to meeting motor transport competition are economically unsound and politically undemocratic. All of Canada stands to lose if the federal government assumes control of highway transportation and inevitably proceeds to legislate it out of existence in response to pressure of railway management and labor.

Respectfully yours,

A. H. MUIR

Civil Service Lament

Dear Editor—In all the merry-go-round of Ottawa, things are at their worst in hot weather. The work slowed up so much this summer that the director sent the following circular to various offices in his department:

"It has been brought to the attention of this office that man employees have been dying while on duty for apparently no good reason at all. Furthermore, the same employees are refusing to fall down after they are dead. This practice must stop at once. On and after July 1, any employee found sitting up after he or she has died will be dropped from the payroll at once without further investigation under Regulation No. 29, section 89. Where it can be proved that the employee is being held up by a desk, drafting table or typewriter or any other support which is the property of the government a 90-day period of grace will be granted. The following procedure will be strictly adhered to: If after several hours it is noticed an employee has not moved or changed position, the department head will investigate. Because of the highly sensitive nature of our employees in regards to such things as death and their natural working attitude, the investigation will be made quietly so as to prevent waking the employee if he is asleep. If some doubt exists as to his true condition, extending a pay check is a fine test. If the employee does not reach for it, it may be reasonably supposed that he is dead. (Note: In some cases the instinct is so strongly developed, however, that a spasmodic clutcher reflex action may occur. Don't let this fool you.) In all cases a sworn statement by the dead person must be filled out on a special form provided for this purpose. Fifteen copies will be made, three copies will be sent to Ottawa and two copies to the deceased, the others will be promptly lost in the department files."

Bombs Away

Dear Editor—Stalingrad . . . Coventry . . . Cologne . . . Hamburg . . . Hiroshima . . . Nagasaki . . . Here then are six terrible examples of bomb destructiveness. How can there be any possible doubt in the minds of our public officials that these examples, one might almost say lessons, so widely publicized on this North American continent, demonstrate that the European concept of town planning with its accent on "Recentralization" is outdated. To prattle of parking problems in Edmonton and suggest greater concentration as a solution, is sheer nonsense. The public's instinctive trend is towards greater safety through "Decentralization," the movement lacks leadership therefore for a degree of chaos exists.

The concentration of public buildings, warehouses, manufacturing plants and populations is a German concept of town planning developed primarily because of of land lack, and because it helped regimentation.

Projects of the nature of that at present being sponsored by City Commissioner Hodgson and Mr. Detwiler could be excellent markers for a bombing run.

Perhaps an atom bomb will never fall on Edmonton, but in the light of present and probable future conditions, who will dare predict that other types will not.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON:

Christianity's Growth Possible Through Courageous Preachers

The growth of Christianity has been due largely to the fearless utterances of consecrated preachers who obeyed their conscience and dared the enmity and hostility of powerful and determined opposition.

When John Bunyan was in prison and threatened with banishment unless he desisted from preaching, he replied: "If I were out of prison today, I would preach the gospel again tomorrow, by the help of God."

When the Apostle to the Indians, Eliot, was threatened by them he replied "I am about the work of the Great God, and my God is with me; so I fear neither you nor all the Sachems in the country."

So it was with Martin Luther. During his conflict with the Pope, when he was summoned to the Diet of Worms, his friends begged him not to go. "Were there as many devils in Worms as there are tiles on the roofs, I would go," he replied. At Worms, asked to recant, he said, "I may not and will not recant. I can do nothing else; here I stand; so help me God, Amen."

Several months after Pentecost, the stir caused by the unusual events of that day had begun to subside when Peter and John inaugurated a new wave of amazement. As they passed the Beautiful Gate of the Temple, a well-known beggar, lame from birth, appealed for help. Unable to give financial aid, Peter restored him to health and strength—a much greater blessing than the beggar had asked for or expected. Immediately following, Peter preached to the crowd which gathered, boldly proclaiming Jesus as the Messiah, accusing the Jewish people of his death, and declaring that Jesus had been raised from the dead by God.

The Temple priests considered the teaching of religion their exclusive functions. The Sadducean party, to which the High Priest belonged, rejected the doctrine of immortality and naturally disliked the preaching of the Resurrection. Therefore, Peter and John were seized, lodged in prison over night, and in the morning brought before the assembled Sanhedrin, which had gathered to pass upon this new challenge to traditional religion.

Called upon to explain the power by which he had done such a miracle, Peter replied with boldness and courage. He frankly and affirmatively declared that his work had been done in the name of Jesus and accused the tribunal of crucifying the expected Messiah. Further than that, Peter declared that in Jesus alone was salvation and in no other, thus stating the exclusiveness necessary for complete faith in Jesus.

The members of the Sanhedrin were astonished at the bearing and utterances of these two men, whom they knew to be laymen and unskilled in theological instruction. They realized that these men had been companions of Jesus.

Seeing the formerly lame man standing healed in their midst, they could say nothing but warned the apostles not to continue with their teaching. However, Peter promptly answered that they would have to obey God rather than men.

Peter, before the Sanhedrin, was a different man from the denying fisherman only a short time before. Something had happened to him. Dr. J. H. Jowett points out what this was:

"He had been to the empty tomb. The awe of the resurrection is upon his spirit. And he had been by the lake on the morning of the reconciliation. The live coal from the altar of his Lord's love had touched him and had purged away the uncleanness of his denial. And he had been in the upper room at Pentecost, and the mighty Spirit had come upon him like wind and flame, endowing him with forceful and enthusiastic character. Now, he can dare for God, now he can work for God, now he can burn for God! And this is how he has been transformed."

Even in the cowardly, uncertain, boasting, arrogant, denying Peter, God saw possibilities. At times, it seems that God deliberately chooses those who have

Teachers Attend Banff Meeting

Sixty-five teachers selected from all parts of the province are attending the second annual Workshop of the Alberta Teachers' Association at Banff this week. The Workshop is conducted annually by the Alberta Teachers' Association for the purpose of developing interest in extra-curricular activities pertaining both to the affairs of the teachers and to the communities in which they work.

The Workshop offers four regular and one special course, each of which is headed by a consultant. The teacher-students are divided into four groups with each group having two half-day periods for each course.

C. R. Strother, professor of clinical psychology at the University of Washington, is the consultant in the course on group planning and Lars Olson, a past member of the provincial executive of the Alberta Teachers' Association, is conducting the course on administration in the Alberta Teachers' Association. Third course is on educational publicity and public relations and is headed by T. A. Shandro, Alberta Teachers' Association director of educational publicity and public relations. Gordon Wilkinson of the Trades and Labor Congress is the consultant in the course on collective agreements.

A special course on education writing is being conducted this had the fiercest struggles before they gained an enduring faith. A famous piano manufacturer wrote his purchasing agents: "See to it that you buy only timber that comes from trees grown on hill-tops, for when trees have battled with the wind and storm, there is more music in them."

"And what did she say?"

"She said she'd send me a photo of it."

In Reverse

"Why didn't you enjoy your drive to Florida?"

"Well, we had to follow the main highways—all the detours were being repaired."

"I don't like to say it, dear, but Fred doesn't seem to be as well dressed as when you married him three years ago."

"That's strange. I'm positive it's the same suit."

Pale

"Girls, my pal over there is going to surprise everybody at the party tonight by singing, so I guess I'll accompany him."

"On the piano?"

"No, to the hospital."

Patriotic Gesture

"So you traded in your old car, at last," said the pessimist.

"Yes," said the optimist, "I'm not one to hold back on our defense program when the government needs scrap iron."

Melody Lingers On

"My daughter has arranged a little piece for the piano."

"Good! It's time we had a little peace."

Abstinence or Else

"So you attribute your longevity to abstinence from alcohol?" inquired the inquiring reporter.

And the centenarian admitted, "Yes, my wife would have killed me if I had touched a drop."

Not So Slow

Three men named Jones, all in the same line of business, opened shops next door to one another. The one on the right had the name "Jones" painted in large letters over the door. The one on the left immediately did the same thing.

The sign-painter then approached the centre Mr. Jones, asking him if he would like his name painted also.

"No," said the wily one. "I want you to paint the word 'Entrance,' over my door."

Letter to Louisa

Mother Thinks Married Son Should Stay With Her

Dear Louisa—I have an only son who has recently married. I have a large enough house to accommodate all of us and had expected to have him and his wife live with me, but during the past week he has been offered a much better paying job in another city.

His wife is anxious to go and he wants to go, in a way, and yet he hates to leave me alone. He feels that it is his duty to stay with me.

His wife has suggested that a nephew of mine stay with me, but that will only mean protection and not the companionship that my son and I have enjoyed together.

Don't you think the young folks owe us old ones something?
 MOTHER.

Answer:

Yes. I think they owe you something, but not the ruination of their lives. From your letter I think you are the selfish person in this instance, instead of your son.

To begin with, you are willing to keep him in an underpaid position and probably kill all of his ambition, and initiative in order to keep him tied on to your apron strings. Instead, you should be so happy over his promotion and be doing everything possible to make him do the best that he can.

You are apparently an able-bodied well woman. Why can't you rent out part of your house or get some congenial woman to come and live with you? There are so many things for you to be interested in that you must cease depending on your son for all of the companionship you have hitherto enjoyed.

You must remember that he is married now and that his wife is supposed to come first. Unfortunately, while you will both be as dear to each other as ever, you cannot possibly see as much of one another as you have in the past, without causing dissatisfaction between him and his wife.

A wife has her place and a mother hers, and it is well not to demand too much.

Good luck,

LOUISA.

Alberta Crops Reported Later than Normal

Alberta crops are two to three weeks later than normal, Hon. David Ure, minister of agriculture, reported last week. Harvesting is becoming general in the south, with yields of five to twenty bushels in some areas, he said.

Mr. Ure stated that average yields west and north of the Killam line probably will be between 15 and 25 bushels per acre, but harvesting will not be general in this area from one to two weeks. East and north of Edmonton the average yield has been estimated at between five and 17 bushels.

Prospects for forage seed crops are generally fair.

A hailstorm which struck several districts two weeks ago, is reported to have caused damage to 50,000 acres between Daysland and Czar.

Condition of livestock continues fair to good. The fall pasture outlook is mostly good. Reports on the second hay crop indicate only fair to poor yields, but other fodder is generally sufficient for requirements.

Despite good pastures, cream production for buttermaking continues below the same period last year. Fewer cows are being milked. It is believed that current high prices for slaughter cattle has resulted in the sale of many marginal producers.

Latest Rural Electrification Project Opens

The Borradaile district just east of Vermilion was the scene of a happy gathering recently when the residents of that district and many interested friends met to celebrate the completion of the latest addition to the ever-growing list of Co-operative Rural Electrification projects that continue to extend the comforts conveniences and economies of electrification to rural Alberta.

The gathering place was Union school, established in 1909, and it is interesting to find that among those who were mainly instrumental in bringing electricity to this area of seventy square miles, there were three of the original students at this school.

The highlight of the afternoon was when, ushered in by the martial strains of the bagpipes played by Pipe Major Angus McMillan and Roderick McMillan, Wop May of Canadian Pacific Airlines turned the switch.

Among the visitors present was the mayor of Vermilion, Mr. W. P. Pilkie who recalled some of his early experiences when he started farming in this district in 1907. Mr. John Melenka, Alberta Master Farmer from Warwick congratulated the association. He stated that his farm had been electrified for just about a year and, as a result of his experience, was convinced it was the best investment he had ever made. The Borradaile project would, he was sure, prove equally satisfactory to the farmers of the area to be served and in its broader aspects marked one step more towards the completion of the electrification of rural north-eastern Alberta.

Mr. Steve Hawrelak represented Canadian Utilities Limited and expressed appreciation of the fine co-operation he had had from the board of directors and others during the process of organization.

The president of the Borradaile Rural Electrification Association is Mr. Hugh Stewart and associated with him as directors are Messrs. Charles Pearman, Bill Gillman, William Walker, Kenneth Watt, Donald Harrison and Robert Galloway. Mr. R. D. Mitchell of Vermilion is the secretary-treasurer.

The economy of Newfoundland rests primarily upon three industries—fishing, mining, pulp and paper and other forest products.

Quebec's Meteoritic Crater Said Biggest on Earth

The largest known meteoritic crater in the world, the famed El Diabolo in Arizona, which is about three-quarters of a mile across from lip-to-lip, will have to give way to a basin discovered in the moss-covered granite plain in northern Quebec.

A party of Canadian explorers say that the newly-discovered crater is two and one-half miles wide. An aerial photograph of a newly found lake in a circle of rock attracted the attention of prospectors and led to the expedition that is now convinced that the five hundred and fifty-foot deep hole is of meteoric origin although further investigation must follow before the assertion can be positively made.

Dr. V. Ben Meen, director of the Royal Ontario Museum of Geology and Mineralogy, thinks that the mass of the meteorite would be deep underground. He places the time of the cosmic collision, in which at least 10,000,000,000 tons of rock were gouged out of the face of the earth, at 3,000 to 5,000 years ago. He reasons that the absence of mention of the catastrophe in Eskimino or Indian folklore sets the minimum estimate and the maximum estimate is based upon the failure of the last retreating glacier to disturb the churned up rock.

The visitations of meteorites and "shooting stars" are somewhat mysterious but the scientists believe that they are the result of the explosion of an earth-size planet between Mars and Jupiter.

Meteorites often enter the earth's atmosphere but most of them are very small. Intensely heated by friction when they reach the earth's atmosphere they are usually consumed before reaching the ground. If falling at night, they appear as a ball of fire, frequently leaving a brilliant train of sparks behind. Sometimes they burst in a loud explosion.

An unusual display of meteorites often occurs in the month of August, when the earth passes through an area which annually produces a number of "shooting stars."

Cost Of Living Continues To Rise Throughout Alberta

Prices continued to advance in Alberta during the past week, with bread and tobacco being the latest commodities to receive new boosts.

Advance of five cents on half pound tins of fine cut tobacco was announced by Imperial Tobacco Company. Increased cost of tin and tobacco are given as reason.

Higher priced cigars jumped from half to two cents each, due to higher cost of fine Havana leaf.

Price rises were also reported for children's shoes, and flannel-ette blankets.

The Dominion Bureau of Statistics reported this week that while industrial employment climbed to a new peak in July, average weekly salaries for Canada's wage-earners moved up to $45.20 from $44.59 at June 1, and $42.96 at July 1, 1949.

A path of bulls' blood was used as a baptism in the mysteries of Attis.
